

Andrew joined the Cotswold School Governors in January 2023 and lives locally. He has three children, two at the Cotswold School and one at Temple Guiting Primary School. Andrew has worked in commercial and leadership positions within the medical device industry over the last fifteen years. In addition, he has enjoyed combining his commercial experience with academic study for an MBA at Henley Business School. Outside work Andrew enjoys cycling, sailing and adventures in the countryside with his three children.